

COMBINED DECLARATION AND POWER OF ATTORNEY FOR PATENT APPLICATION

As a below named inventor, I hereby declare that:

My residence, post office address and citizenship are as stated below next to my name.

I believe I am the original, first and sole inventor (if only one name is listed below) or an original, first and joint inventor (if plural names are listed below) of the subject matter which is claimed and for which a patent is sought on the invention entitled was filed on September 14, 2001 as United States Application Number 09/953,338.

I hereby state that I have reviewed and understand the contents of the above identified specification, including the claims, as amended by any amendment referred to above.

I acknowledge the duty to disclose to the United States Patent and Trademark Office all information which I know to be material to patentability as defined in Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations, § 1.56.

I hereby claim foreign priority benefits under Title 35, United States Code, § 119(a)-(d) of any foreign application(s) for patent or inventor's certificate listed below. I have also identified below any foreign application for patent or inventor's certificate having a filing date before that of the application on which priority is claimed.

ASSIGNMENT

Alford to Organ Transport

Robert M. Dowben, who resides at 14 Loring Avenue, in the city and county of Providence, Rhode Island, and receives mail at P.O. Box 9186, Providence, RI 02940, and Marlin L. Alford, who resides at 1851 CR 438, Dublin, in the County of ~~Erath~~ ^{Cottrell} Texas 76446 ("said inventors"), have jointly made an invention comprising certain new, useful, and nonobvious improvements in

ORGAN PRESERVATION APPARATUS AND METHODS

Said invention is described or intended to be described and set forth in the patent application identified as McAndrews Held & Malloy Docket No. 13241US01, Serial No. 09/953,338 filed September 14, 2001.

Organ Transport Systems, Inc. a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Nevada (hereinafter: "Organ Transport"), having a place of business at 14300 Cornerstone Village Drive, Suite 318, Houston, Texas 77014, desires to acquire the entire right, title, and interest in and to said invention, any past, present, or future improvements made to said invention, any resulting United States or foreign patent applications directed to said invention and improvements, any and all divisions, continuations, or continuations in part of said applications, any Letters Patent which may be granted for said invention or said improvements, any reissues, reexamination certificates, and extensions of said Letters Patent, and any related trade secrets and know-how.

Mr. Alford warrants and represents that said inventors conceived said invention themselves, that no one other than said inventors is a joint inventor of said invention, and that Mr. Alford presently owns the entire right, title, and interest in and to said invention originally possessed by him as a joint inventor.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of one dollar and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, Mr. Alford hereby assigns to Organ Transport, its successors and assigns, the entire worldwide right, title, and interest originally possessed by him as a joint inventor in and to said invention, said application, any related trade secrets and know-how, any said improvement which said inventors have discovered in the past or present, and any said improvement which said inventors discover in the future, and said Letters Patent which may be granted for said invention, said application, and any and all divisions, continuations, continuations in part, reissues, reexamination certificates, substitutes, and extensions of said application (each of which is included herein as a part of "said application"), including but not limited to all United States and other national rights to said invention and said application and all rights under the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property and all other applicable treaties or laws in respect to said invention and said application.

Mr. Alford hereby authorizes and requests the United States Director of Patents and Trademarks and any foreign patent office to issue any Letters Patent which may be granted for said invention or improvements or upon said application to Organ Transport, its successors and assigns, in accordance with this assignment.

Mr. Alford hereby authorizes Organ Transport to apply for patents on said invention in foreign countries, claiming the filing date of said application under the provisions of the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property and all other applicable treaties and laws, and Mr. Alford further agrees to execute any and all documents that may be required or desired by Organ Transport in order that Organ Transport may apply for Letters Patent on said invention in foreign countries in its name.

Mr. Alford hereby agrees to promptly communicate to Organ Transport or its representatives any improvements said inventors have discovered or discover and any facts known to said inventors respecting said invention or said application; to testify in any legal proceeding relating thereto; to sign all lawful papers, including but not limited to all papers in any original, divisional, continuing, continuing in part, reissue, substitute, and extension applications, all rightful oaths or declarations, and documents confirming or substituting for this assignment.

Mr. Alford agrees to do all acts agreed to in this document without further compensation, except for reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred by Mr. Alford in carrying out these acts.

ORGAN PRESERVATION APPARATUS AND METHODS

Said invention is described or intended to be described and set forth in the patent application identified as McAndrews Held & Malloy Docket No. 13241US01, Serial No. 09/953,338 filed September 14, 2001.

Robert M. Dowben, in exchange for good and valuable consideration, has assigned to Acorn Development, Inc., a Delaware corporation, the mailing address of which is P.O. Box 9186, Providence, Rhode Island 02940-9186 ("Acorn"), his entire right, title, and interest in and to the invention, any past, present, or future improvements made to said invention, any resulting United States or foreign patent applications directed to said invention and improvements, any and all divisions, continuations, or continuations in part of said applications, any Letters Patent which may be granted for said invention or said improvements, any reissues, reexamination certificates, and extensions of said Letters Patent, and any related trade secrets and know-how.

Organ Transport Systems, Inc. a corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Nevada (hereinafter: "Organ Transport"), having a place of business at 14300 Cornerstone Village Drive, Suite 318, Houston, Texas 77014, desires to acquire the entire right, title, and interest in and to said invention, any past, present, or future improvements made to said invention, any resulting United States or foreign patent applications directed to said invention and improvements, any and all divisions, continuations, or continuations in part of said applications, any Letters Patent which may be granted for said invention or said improvements, any reissues, reexamination certificates, and extensions of said Letters Patent, and any related trade secrets and know-how.

Acorn warrants and represents that said inventors conceived said invention themselves, that no one other than said inventors is a joint inventor of said invention, and that Acorn presently owns the entire right, title, and interest in and to said invention originally possessed by Robert M. Dowben.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of one dollar and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, Acorn hereby assigns to Organ Transport, its successors and assigns, the entire worldwide right, title, and interest originally possessed by Robert M. Dowben in and to said invention, said application, any related trade secrets and know-how, any said improvement which said inventors have discovered in the past or present, and any said improvement which said inventors discover in the future, and said Letters Patent which may be granted for said invention, said application, and any and all divisions, continuations, continuations in part, reissues, reexamination certificates, substitutes, and extensions of said application (each of which is included herein as a part of "said application"), including but not limited to all United States and other national rights to said invention and said application and all rights under the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property and all other applicable treaties or laws in respect to said invention and said application.

Acorn hereby authorizes and requests the United States Director of Patents and Trademarks and any foreign patent office to issue any Letters Patent which may be granted for said invention or improvements or upon said application to Organ Transport, its successors and assigns, in accordance with this assignment.

Acorn hereby authorizes Organ Transport to apply for patents on said invention in foreign countries, claiming the filing date of said application under the provisions of the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property and all other applicable treaties and laws, and Acorn further agrees to execute any and all documents that may be required or desired by Organ Transport in order that Organ Transport may apply for Letters Patent on said invention in foreign countries in its name.

Acorn hereby agrees to promptly communicate to Organ Transport or its representatives any improvements said inventors have discovered or discover and any facts known to said inventors respecting said invention or said application; to testify in any legal proceeding relating thereto; to sign all lawful papers, including but not limited to all papers in any original, divisional, continuing, continuing in part, reissue, substitute, and extension applications, all rightful oaths or declarations, and documents confirming or substituting for this assignment.

Acorn agrees to do all acts agreed to in this document without further compensation, except for reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred by Acorn in carrying out these acts.

NUNC PRO TUNC ASSIGNMENT

Dowben to Acorn

Robert M. Dowben, who resides at 14 Loring Avenue, in the city and county of Providence, Rhode Island and Marlin L. Alford, who resides at Rural Route 2, Dublin, in the County of Erath, Texas 76446, and receives mail at P.O. Box 318B, Dublin, Texas, 76446 ("said inventors"); have jointly made an invention comprising certain new, useful, and nonobvious improvements in

ORGAN PRESERVATION APPARATUS AND METHODS

Said invention is described or intended to be described and set forth in the patent application, U.S. Serial No. 09/953,338, filed September 14, 2001, further identified as McAndrews Held & Malloy Attorney Docket No. 13241US01.

Mr. Dowben previously signed an assignment of his rights in and to the present invention directly to Organ Transport Systems, Inc., of Houston, Texas ("Organ Transport"). After this assignment was submitted to the United States Patent and Trademark Office for recording, Mr. Dowben realized that the assignment of his rights was mistakenly made directly to Organ Transport. Mr. Dowben intended to assign his invention to Acorn Development, Inc., a Delaware corporation, the mailing address of which is P.O. Box 9186, Providence, Rhode Island 02940-9186 ("Acorn"). Acorn, in turn, intended to subsequently transfer the invention to Organ Transport in a separate document.

Organ Transport, by its signature below, acknowledges that it has no objection to, and hereby approves, a nunc pro tunc two-stage transfer in which Mr. Dowben's original rights are transferred to Acorn in one transaction, and Acorn's acquired rights are transferred to Organ Transport in a second transaction. This change does not affect the original assignment of Mr. Alford's rights directly to Organ Transport.

Mr. Dowben warrants and represents that said inventors conceived said invention themselves, that no one other than said inventors is a joint inventor of said invention, and that Mr. Dowben presently owns the entire right, title, and interest originally possessed by Mr. Dowben to said invention, as a joint inventor.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of one dollar and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, Mr. Dowben hereby assigns to Acorn, its successors and assigns, nunc pro tunc, the entire worldwide right, title, and interest in and to said invention, said application, any related trade secrets and know-how, any said improvement which said inventors have discovered in the past or present, and any said improvement which said inventors discover in the future, and said Letters Patent which may be granted for said invention, said application, and any and all divisions, continuations, continuations in part, reissues, reexamination certificates, substitutes, and extensions of said application (each of which is included herein as a part of "said application"), including but not limited to all United States and other national rights to said invention and said application and all rights under the Paris Convention for the Protection of Assignment by Mr. Dowben to Acorn Development Inc.

Industrial Property and all other applicable treaties or laws in respect to said invention and said application., and any related trade secrets and know-how.

Mr. Dowben hereby authorizes and requests the United States Director of Patents and Trademarks and any foreign patent office to issue any Letters Patent which may be granted for said invention or improvements or upon said application to Acorn, its successors and assigns, in accordance with this assignment.

Mr. Dowben hereby authorizes Acorn to apply for patents on said invention in foreign countries, claiming the filing date of said application under the provisions of the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property and all other applicable treaties and laws, and Mr. Dowben further agrees to execute any and all documents that may be required or desired by Acorn in order that Acorn may apply for Letters Patent on said invention in foreign countries in its name.

Mr. Dowben hereby agrees to promptly communicate to Acorn or its representatives any improvements said inventors have discovered or discover and any facts known to said inventors respecting said invention or said application; to testify in any legal proceeding relating thereto; to sign all lawful papers, including but not limited to all papers in any original, divisional, continuing, continuing in part, reissue, substitute, and extension applications, all rightful oaths or declarations, and documents confirming or substituting for this assignment.

Mr. Dowben agrees to do all acts agreed to in this document without further compensation, except for reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred by Mr. Dowben in carrying out these acts.

Organ Transport Systems, Inc., of Houston, Texas, by its signature below, acknowledges that it has no objection to, and hereby approves, a nunc pro tunc two-stage transfer in which Mr. Dowben's original rights are transferred to Acorn in one transaction, and Acorn's acquired rights are transferred to Organ Transport in a second transaction. Organ Transport agrees that the previously-signed assignment of rights from Mr. Dowben directly to Organ Transport has no effect.

Signed at Houston, in the County of Harris and State of Texas, this 14th day of October, 2002.
